Open 11 am to 7pm Saturdays except Saturday May 26 open until 9pm.

Sundays 11 am to 6 pm and Memorial Day 11 am to 6pm

- What: Old World Renaissance Festival – Meet hundreds of family members living, working & playing in Southern California's only permanent Renaissance Village. Visitors to this 1450-1600 European Village are entertained, discover fine arts and crafts, and enjoy delectable food and beverages. The festival celebrates the inventions and changes of the renaissance period.
- Where: Crossroads Riverview Park - 14600 River Rd, Corona, CA. The festival uses 9 beautiful acres of the 120-acre park. Southern California's only permanent renaissance village is just minutes from major metropolitan cities in Riverside County, San Bernardino and Orange County.
- Dates & Hours: Open weekends and Memorial Day – May 12th through June 10, 2007. Open rain or shine on Saturdays from 11:00 am to 7:00 pm and Sundays from 11:00 am to 6:00 pm. The village stays open late on May 26th until 9:00pm for the magical experience of a renaissance village after dark. Guests with campers or RVs are welcome to camp free for the weekend. No tents allowed.
- Entertainment: Visitors will enjoy five stages of entertainment, featuring plays, music, dancing, comedy and juggling. Wandering minstrels, exciting horse shows, archery competitions, a traditional school of arts and crafts for children of all ages. Thrill to the jousting of the Imperial Knights and their amazing trained horses.
- Crafts: Artisans present, sell and demonstrate their handcrafted wares. Glass blowers, potters, soap makers, purveyors of fine swords, jewelry, leather, period clothing and many other European merchants offer a wide variety of beautifully crafted wares.
- Edibles: Delicious food and drink available. Giant turkey legs, bratwurst, soup, veggies, funnel cakes, ice cream, imported and domestic ale and beer, soda and much more are offered.
