Corona, January 15, 2018 – Groupon (www.groupon.com) has honored Koroneburg Renaissance Festival as part of its annual Best of Groupon collection, which recognizes local businesses for the popularity of their Groupon campaigns and high levels of customer service.

Only a handful of merchants received the Best of Groupon distinction and are identifiable to consumers on the Best of Groupon page on Groupon.com and in the Groupon mobile app, via unique badging on their Groupon deal pages, and through special email sends. Best of Groupon merchants span a wide range of geographies and industries, including health and beauty, food and drink, and activities-based businesses.

“We’re proud to feature so many great locally-owned businesses in our marketplace, and it’s exciting to have the chance to showcase top merchants who have delivered unbeatable service to their customers,” said Jay Klauminzer, Vice President of Local Deals, Groupon.

“It was simple—Groupon connected us with local customers, and many of them have become regulars and familiar faces,” said David Pulcifer, Festival Director of Koroneburg Renaissance Festival in Corona. “We were able to customize our offer to meet essential business needs and diversify the ways in which we promote our business.”
