RE: Koroneburg Festival 1st Annual Fashion Competition 1500's

Dear Director/Instructor/Advisor,

We would like to take this opportunity to invite your students to the 2019 Koroneburg Festival's 1st Annual Fashion Competition. We are looking for people of all ages to participate who have an interest in History. Our Festival is based on a 16th Century German Village where many visitors come to gather for the Celebration. There are visitors from France, Italy, Spain and England that come to our beautiful little village.

We hope to see some beautiful fashions from any of these countries. The Participants will be judged as follows:

1. Overall Historical Appearance. Does this look like it could have existed during the period stated? Are the layers/parts there?
2. Is the silhouette correct for the origin and period?
3. Are the fabrics/materials as correct as possible for the origin and period?
4. Use of Colors: Are they correct in color and combinations for the origin and period?
5. Fit: Does the garment fit correctly?
6. Construction: Are the garments constructed to appear period correct? Are modern construction techniques visible?
7. Embellishments: Are proper materials and techniques used appropriate for the class distinction level?
8. Accessories: Are they correct? Are they present?
9. Jewelry/Adornments: Are they appropriate for the type of garments worn?
10. Hair and Make up: Appropriate style for garments worn?

The participant categories are as follows:

AGES: Adults 18+ Children 0-17

LEVEL: Novice Apprentice Journeyman Master

CATEGORY: Peasant/Farmer Merchant/Middle Class Nobility/Royalty Other

Please encourage your students to enter this competition.

Thank you, and we hope to see you and your students at our Festival.
