KORONEBURG RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL 2019 FACT SHEET

- Who: Loyal Order of Reenactment Enthusiasts is the company who currently owns and runs the Koroneburg Renaissance Festival. They have been making great changes to the festival since 2017.
- What: Meet hundreds of family members living, working and playing in one of the only South Californian permanent Renaissance Villages. Visitors to this 1450-1600 European Village are entertained, discover fine arts and crafts, and enjoy delectable food and beverages. The festival celebrates the inventions and changes of the renaissance period.
- When: Open for 5 weekends and Memorial Day, May 25th through June 24th, 2019. Open rain or shine on Saturdays from 10:00 am to 7:00 pm and Sundays/Memorial Day from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm.
- Where: Riverview Recreation Park
14600 Baron Drive,
Corona, CA 92880

The festival uses 9 beautiful acres of the 120-acre park. It is one of the only permanent renaissance villages in Southern California, and is just minutes from major metropolitan cities in Riverside County, San Bernardino and Orange County.

Entertainment: Visitors will enjoy five stages of entertainment, featuring plays, music, dancing, comedy and juggling. There are wandering minstrels, exciting falconry shows, archery competitions, and a traditional school of arts and crafts for children of all ages. Also enjoy the jousting and horse competitions hosted by World Joust Tournaments and their amazing trained horses.

Vendors: Artisans present, sell and demonstrate their handcrafted wares. Glass blowers, potters, soap makers, purveyors of fine swords, jewelry, leather, period clothing and many other European merchants offer a wide variety of beautifully crafted wares.

Food: Delicious food and drinks are available. Giant turkey legs, bratwurst, soup, veggies, funnel cakes, ice cream, soda, beer & ale from small local breweries, and much more are offered. We also have a traditional restaurant called The Willkommen Inn, and a daily pub crawl event.

Admission: Admission Prices: Adults - $25.00, Seniors 62+ and Children 6-12 - $15.00, Children under 6 are free. Active/Retired Military tickets are free on Memorial Day.
